

Seven Reasons to Consider a Baltimore Jewish Day School:

- 7. Individualized attention and small class sizes
- 6. Jewish learning that benefits the whole family by enriching holidays, lifecycle events and other milestones
- 5. Hebrew as a second language
- 4. Jewish values are ever-present and continually emphasized
- 3. A challenging dual-curriculum, combining secular with Judaic studies
- 2. Organizational and leadership skills which benefit children in college and beyond
- 1. Life-long Jewish friendships and a sense of community

Open Houses this fall:

Beth Tfiloh Dahan Community School
SUN, Nov 6 | 2:00 p.m.
Beth Tfiloh
3300 Old Court Road, Baltimore
For more information, contact Laurie Kott at admission@btfiloh.org or 410-413-2308.

The Day School at Baltimore Hebrew
WED, Oct 26 | 9:00 a.m.
Baltimore Hebrew
7401 Park Heights Avenue, Baltimore
For more information, contact Glenn Singer at admissions@bhcds.org or 410-764-1867.

Krieger Schechter Day School
MON, Oct 24 | 9:00 a.m.
TUE, Dec 6 | 7:00 p.m.
Krieger Schechter
8100 Stevenson Road, Baltimore
For more information, contact Ilene Wise at iwise@soink12.ksds.edu or 410-824-2066.

The Shoshana S. Cardin School
WED, Oct 26 | 9:00 a.m.
The Shoshana S. Cardin School
7310 Park Heights Avenue, Baltimore
For more information, contact Barbie Prince at 410-585-1400.

